

MEDICATION	ADMINISTRATION	ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS
------------	----------------	---------------------

The following medications are given at one's home via subcutaneous (under-the-skin) self-injection, with the exception of Avonex®, which is given via intramuscular (deeper in the tissue) self-injection:

Avonex® (interferon beta-1a)	Given once weekly	Above MS (800) 456-2255 / www.avonex.com
Betaseron® (interferon beta-1b)	Given every other day	BetaPlus (844) 788-1470 / www.betaseron.com
Copaxone® (glatiramer acetate)	Given daily or three-times weekly	Shared Solutions (800) 887-8100 / www.copaxone.com
Extavia® (interferon beta-1b)	Given every other day	Patient Services Program (866) 398-2842 / www.extavia.com
Glatopa® (glatiramer acetate)	Given daily or three-times weekly	GlatopaCare (855) 452-8672 / www.glatopa.com
Generic Glatiramer Acetate Injection (glatiramer acetate)	Given daily or three-times weekly	Mylan MS Advocate Program (844) 695-2667 / www.glatiramercetate.com
Plegridy® (peginterferon beta-1a)	Given once every two weeks	Above MS (800) 456-2255 / www.plegridy.com
Rebif® (interferon beta-1a)	Given three-times weekly	MS Lifelines (877) 447-3243 / www.rebif.com

Given via intravenous (IV) infusion, usually at a hospital or infusion center:

Lemtrada® (alemtuzumab)	Given for a course of five days, with a three-day course one year later	MS One to One (855) 676-6326 / www.lemtrada.com
Novantrone® (mitoxantrone)	Given every three months; seldom prescribed due to serious health risks	N/A
Ocrevus™ (ocrelizumab)	Given every six months, with the initial dose given in two half-doses	OCREVUS Access Solutions (866) 422-2377 / www.Genentech-Access.com/patient.html
Tysabri® (natalizumab)	Given every four weeks	Above MS (800) 456-2255 / www.tysabri.com

Taken orally at one's home:

Aubagio® (teriflunomide)	One tablet taken daily	MS One to One (855) 676-6326 / www.aubagio.com
Gilenya® (fingolimod)	One capsule taken daily	Patient Services Program (800) 445-3692 / www.gilenya.com
Tecfidera™ (dimethyl fumarate)	One tablet taken twice daily	Above MS (800) 456-2255 / www.tecfidera.com